

Prerequisites for IIT Bombay Workshop

1. Knowledge of basic concepts in Machine Learning and Deep Learning
2. Programming skills (Python, TensorFlow/Keras)
3. Hardware requirements
 - a. A laptop
 - b. Good to have an Android phone (with Android version > 5.0) with a Mobile-USB cable
4. Software requirements
 - a. Hands-on will be done on Google Colab. Recommending to be familiarized with Colab and have a Google account for access.
 - b. Good to have Android Studio installed in the laptop
5. General requirements (from IIT Bombay Workshop Organizers)
 - a. Internet connection for all laptops

References:

- [1] ML Course by Andrew Ng, <https://www.coursera.org/learn/machine-learning>
- [2] Stanford Computer Vision Course CS 231N, <http://cs231n.github.io/>
- [3] Android Studio, <https://developer.android.com/studio/install>
- [4] Google Colab, <https://colab.research.google.com/>